

Luke 24:36b-48 Quiz

Jesus proves that he isn't a ghost. He shows them his hands and feet--with the wounds from the nails. Jesus asks for food and eats the _____ that they give him. He isn't a ghost. Not at all! This is the same Jesus who died, and he is alive again. Jesus tells the disciples, "You are witnesses of these things"

Witnesses! What is a witness? A _____ is someone who has seen something--someone who knows what happened--someone who can tell others what happened. That's what Jesus expected of those first disciples--that they would proclaim repentance and forgiveness of sins--and that they would tell people what had happened. The disciples did that, beginning in Jerusalem at _____. They did it, and they changed the world.

That's what Jesus expects of us as well. He expects us to proclaim _____ and forgiveness of sins. He expects us to tell people what happened at the cross and open tomb. He expects us to make a difference in people's lives. Christ calls us to be people whose lives witness to his power to redeem and to save--people whose lives draw men and women to him.

Eloy Cruz, a Cuban pastor said, "We only need to have two loves in our lives. For God, and for the person who happens to be in front of us at any time."

A. Repentance

C. Pentecost

B. Witness

D. Fish