

John 2:13-22 Quiz

The Ten Commandments are not just law in the usual sense, concerned with what is right and wrong. These commandments are about _____, our loyalty to the one true God rather than the small gods. What the commandments warn us against — hatred and lust and lies and all the other things — are the traps set for us by these small gods.

Billy Graham said, "We are slaves to our gadgets, puppets of our power, and prisoners of our security. The theme of our generation is: 'Get more, know more, and do more,' instead of 'Pray more, be more, and serve more.'"

The Lord comes today to set us free!

John Fischer wrote: Everybody worships something or _____. Human beings have been worshipping since we were created. That's because we were created for the purpose of _____. But God did more than create us and tell us to worship God. God created us with a NEED for worship.

Whatever you place near your heart today, is what you worship, and that is what will be sucked into the core of your being — the place where only God belongs, because only God can satisfy your _____.

Theodore Parker said, in one of his sermons, "To know whom you worship, let me see you in your shop, let me hear you in your trade, let me know how you rent your houses, how you get your money, how you kept it and how you spent it."

- A. someone
- B. loyalty

- C. worshipping
- D. longing
