

Mark 11:1-11 Quiz

In this story, we look at two ways of _____. First, the two disciples brought back the colt. Second, the colt's owner let the two disciples take the colt. "The Lord has need of it!" That was enough! Maybe the owner had heard of Jesus. Maybe he knew Jesus. At any rate, he let the disciples take the colt. "The Lord has need of it." That's all he needed to hear.

What would our world be like if everyone responded to Jesus like that?
Lord, you want me to feed the hungry! No problem!
Lord, you want me to invite my neighbor to church! No problem!

On that first Palm Sunday, both the disciples and the colt's owner did what Jesus wanted them to do, and that made the _____. It always makes a difference when we do what Jesus wants us to do — when we are willing to submit to his will without question.

Sometimes Jesus had to _____ into the wilderness just to be by himself — to get his head together — to pray.

As we go through life, we have our Palm Sundays — exciting, joyful, full-of-hope days. We also have our Good Fridays — those terrible, hopeless days. Wherever we are in our _____, let us remember Jesus' journey. The people shouted "Hosanna! Save us!" and he did save them. He saves us too! Not always in the way that we expect, but he saves us!

- A. escape
- B. journey

- C. obeying
- D. difference
